

The May Manton Fashions

5706—Belted or Tunic Blouse. 44 to 44 inches bust.
5600—Four Piece Suit. 34 to 34 inches bust.

Here is a costume that fills one of the really important needs of everyday life. The skirt is new, four-gored, and flares beautifully without exaggeration. The blouse is a quite plain one, simple and easy to make, yet smart in the extreme. It can be worn as it is on the figure, or it can be worn over the skirt with a belt at back and either as indicated in the smaller view, and in whichever way it is treated it is always satisfactory and comfortable. In the illustration the blouse is made from natural colored pongee, while the skirt is made of a checked wool material in shades of brown and tan. The combination is a good one, but blouse of the kind can be made from any simple, suitable material, from crepe de chine, from cotton crepe or from linen; and for tennis and autumn sports they are excellent made from chablis, light weight flannel and materials of the kind. The skirt makes a good model for the tailored suit as well as for the odd skirt. It can be finished as it is here, or with suspenders over the shoulders, and suspender effects are exceedingly smart and very becoming to many figures.

For the medium size the blouse will require 4½ yards of material 27 inches wide, 8 yards 36, 2½ yards 44; the skirt, 6 yards of material 27 inches wide, 8½ yards 36 or 44, with 1 yard 27 inches wide, ¾ yard 36, ½ yard 44 inches wide for the band. The blouse pattern, No. 8708, is cut in sizes from 34 to 44 inches bust; the skirt pattern, No. 5600, is cut in sizes from 20 to 34 inches waist.

Call at THE EVENING WORLD MAY MANTON FASHION BUREAU, Donald Building, 100 West Thirty-second Street (opposite the Grand Hotel), corner Fifth Avenue and Thirty-second Street, New York, or send by mail on receipt of ten cents in coin or stamps for each pattern ordered.

ANOTHER TILT BETWEEN P. S. COMMISSIONER AND B. R. T. OVER CAR STOPS

In This Bout, Concerning the Third Street Station, the Railway Wins.

Because the Public Service Commission served an order on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and then summoned John J. Dempsey, superintendent of traffic to court for violating it, Magistrate Dodd in Brooklyn today dominated Dempsey and made some sarcastic remarks about "official carelessness."

Since May 21 the Public Service Commission has been battling with the B. R. T. over the question of having express trains running between Fulton Street and Bay Ridge stop at Third Street. The Commission ordered the trains to stop; the company ignored the order. Then the Commission didn't do anything at all until persons who would benefit by the stopping of trains made loud complaints.

The result of these complaints was that Superintendent Dempsey was summoned to court. Magistrate Dodd finally finished with the case to-day and in his decision dismissing Dempsey said:

"There is no proof, and in fact it is not contended, that this order was ever served on the defendant. If it was intended to enforce obedience of the order it would have been a simple matter to have served the defendant with a copy, and on his failure to comply with it he could be prosecuted. The Public Service Commission having failed to serve the defendant with a copy of the order, the defendant is discharged."

BOARD OF HEALTH GETS AFTER SCHOOL TEACHERS

Goldwater Demands Names of All Who Have Tuberculosis or Colds.

Health Commissioner Goldwater sent out to-day a last letter of warning to principals of public schools throughout Greater New York, directing them to report to him at once all cases of teachers who appear to have tuberculosis or who are often absent from duty because of bad colds or coughs.

The Commissioner sent out the first notice last April to the 47 school principals, asking them to report such cases, but he received very few replies. Therefore he repeated the inquiry on Aug. 25, but only seventy-one principals answered his inquiries. Fifty-six of them reported that there were no suspicious cases among their teachers. Fifteen teachers were reported as having tuberculosis and eighteen with bad colds.

In the letter sent to-day to all school principals Dr. Goldwater demands the names of the tuberculous teachers as well as of those doctors, he adds. "Section 30 of the Revised Sanitary Code forbids the employment of tuberculous teachers or instructors in private, public or parochial schools except with the written permission of the Department of Health."

A violation of the Code is a misdemeanor.

TROOPS FIRE ON SNIPERS.

Canadians Have Night Clash on Ontario Border.

HUFFALO, Sept. 10.—Rifles were exchanged between snipers and soldiers of the Forty-fourth Canadian Infantry at Crystal Beach, Ont., last night, but so far as could be learned no casualties resulted. An auto carrying half a dozen men was seen speeding away from the point where the firing began.

RIDES TWELVE HOURS IN AUTO; CAN'T PAY $48 BILL, SO GOES TO JAIL

Chauffeur Drives Fare to Police Station After Tour of Restaurants.

A well dressed man, who said he was Louis H. Morris, forty-five years old, a real estate operator, of No. 216 West One Hundred and Second street, was locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct in the West Forty-seventh Street Police Station, early to-day, on complaint of a chauffeur, Romeo Picculli, of No. 272 West Forty-third Street, who charged that Morris had taken a $48 ride in a touring car, of which Picculli is driver, and refused to pay.

Picculli brought his fare to the station house and told the Lieutenant Morris had appeared at the Packard Transportation and Repair Company, No. 234 West Forty-first Street, at 2 o'clock yesterday, and engaged the automobile. He journeyed to Coney Island, Picculli said, then returned to New York and dined, remaining in the restaurant two hours, while the car waited outside.

Then Picculli said he took the passenger to Lorber's, Shanley's, Church's, Rector's, the Claremont Inn and several other places. At one time in the evening, he said, Morris borrowed a dollar from him.

A little after 2 o'clock this morning, the chauffeur said, $48 was due, and asked for the money. Morris didn't have it, and the chauffeur took him to the police station.

Morris said he told the manager of the Packard Company he expected to collect $500 at Coney Island, and would be unable to pay the bill for

ROBBERS CUT OFF HAIR OF A SLEEPING WOMAN

Mrs. Kelly Awakens to Find Her Tresses and $10 Gone—Case Puzzles Police.

Mrs. James Kelly of No. 333 East Eighty-third Street, thought she heard the front door slam at 2:30 A. M. to-day and, finding the oil lamp had gone out, called her husband to investigate.

A light revealed her black hair had been cut off within three inches of her scalp, with the exception of a strand that happened to be under her as she slept. A pillow on the floor was saturated with the oil that had been in the lamp. A suit case had been opened and $10 taken. A trunk had been searched, but nothing taken.

The Kelly flat is on the ground floor. The front door, and up eight feet of solid wall in the rear, are the only ways an intruder could get in. There were no marks to indicate any one had got in either way.

Two young men, who were on a stoop across the street because they could not sleep, said no one had come out of the house. The police said it was one of the strangest cases they ever had.
